UM LAW STUDENTS
RECEIVE AWARDS
AT BARRISTERS BANQUET

MISSOULA--

Ten law students at the University of Montana received scholarships and other awards Saturday night (April 18) during the annual Barristers Awards Banquet.

Robert E. Sullivan, UM law dean, said the banquet, which was held in the University Center Ballroom by the UM law school as part of the school's annual Law Weekend, recognizes scholastic excellence and overall performance qualities by UM law students.

The awards banquet preceded the 1970 Barristers Ball, which was held at the Florence Motor Inn.

Awardees named Saturday night included John L. Hilts, Roundup. Hilts received the Wall Street Journal Award, a year's subscription to the newspaper; the George W. Martin $100 Scholarship, and the UM School of Law Certificate of Excellence for overall academic achievement.

William N. Jensen, Billings, received the Phi Delta Phi Award from the PDP legal fraternity as the student judged most outstanding in the law school.

Douglas M. Greenwood, Glentana, and Lee H. Simmons, Red Lodge, each received a $100 U.S. Savings Bond as Justin Miller Award winners for having made the best student contributions to the Montana Law Review.

Other awardees included Carl F. Roehl, Bellingham, Wash., received the Prentice-Hall Federal Tax Guide for being the graduating senior receiving the highest grade in federal tax courses; Sandra R. Muckelston, Lewistown, received the $350 scholarship from the law firm of Garlington, Lohn & Robinson, Missoula, and Harold Van Dye, Cut Bank, the $500 Charles J. Dousman Scholarship.

The American Law Book Company Awards went to three UM law students for making the most significant contributions to overall legal scholarship: Richard E. McCann, Billings, a first-year law student; Ronald A. Bender, Butte, a second-year law student, and John W. Northey, Missoula, a third-year law student.

The names of the 1970-71 Board of Editors for the Montana Law Review also were announced Saturday night. They are:

Robert P. Goff, Glasgow, editor; Gregory L. Hanson, Missoula, business manager; and four associate editors--Bender; Dye; Robert G. Franks, Alberton, and Miss Muckelston.

Incoming officers of the Montana Student Bar Association also were announced Saturday. They include Joseph W. Duffy, Butte, president; Gary J. Wilcox, Helena, vice-president; Klaus Sitte, Rochester, Minn., secretary; John A. Lence, Whitefish, treasurer, and Bruce McGinnis, Billings, American Bar Association representative.

Lonnice Dale, Choteau, was named senior class representative, and Terence B. Cosgrove, Renton, Wash., was named junior class representative.

The 1970-71 law assistants named Saturday included Goff, Franks, Bender and Hanson.
